PORT HIGHLIGHTS

Seattle, Washington : Day 1 & 8

ABOUT SEATTLE

Seattle is often characterized by its laid-back attitude and rainy climate, but this thriving metropolis also offers one-of-a-kind architecture, the Olympic and Cascade mountain ranges, and a unique urban sophistication.

ACTIVITIES IN SEATTLE

Woodland Park Zoo is a conservation and education institution demonstrating the value, beauty and interdependence of all living things. See, touch and explore our amazing underwater world at the Seattle Aquarium. Get face-to-fin with marine life and discover the natural wonders of the Puget Sound. The Space Needle is located at Seattle Center. That's an apt description of where we are: the center of Seattle. Whatever your interests - theatre, ballet, opera, professional sports, rock 'n' roll history, roller coasters, science, movies, shopping, exploring or just plain walking around - the city unfurls from the Space Needle. The Washington Park Arboretum is a spectacular urban green space on the shores of Lake Washington just east of downtown Seattle and south of the University of Washington. Its 230 acres comprise a dynamic, living museum with collections of oaks, conifers, camellias, Japanese maples and hollies that are known internationally as our country's largest. Check out the Experience Music Project, a rock-n-roll museum known not only for its contents, but for its architectural design. Stroll through the historic district of Pioneer Square, filled with art galleries, restaurants, and plenty of bookstores and boutiques. Gain some historical insight at the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park.

Icy Strait Point, Alaska : Day 3

ABOUT ICY STRAIT POINT

Icy Strait Point offers something for every traveler. Extreme adventurers can explore the beautiful wilderness by going mountain biking, ocean kayaking, alpine hiking or deep-sea fishing. Those seeking a more relaxed adventure can watch a Native dance performance, learn about the town's historic cannery at the museum or shop for arts and crafts.

ACTIVITIES IN ICY STRAIT POINT

CruisitudeT M Tip: Adrenaline seekers will love the views and thrills of the world's largest and highest zip line located just outside the port. The zip line is 5,330 feet long and features a 1,300- foot vertical drop.

- Go on an exciting helicopter adventure and look for whales, eagles, bear and other local wildlife or take a flightseeing tour of nearby Glacier Bay in a propeller airplane.
- Visit the beautifully landscaped Alaskan Botanical Garden.
- Explore the Native Tlingit historical park, museum and theater for a look at Alaska Native culture and history.

Glacier Bay AK, United States : Day 4

ABOUT GLACIER BAY

Glacier Bay provides travelers with the perfect day of cruising quietly through the best of Alaska. Visitors should have their camera ready to capture the moment giant pinnacles of ice crack off the face of the glaciers.

Sitka AK, United State : Day 5

ABOUT SITKA

Sitka has perhaps the richest history of any Alaskan town. Explore the blend of Russian and Native American cultures while enjoying the unspoiled landscape at the gateway to remote Southeast Alaska. Both the local residents and abundant wildlife add to Sitka's authentic feel.

ACTIVITIES IN SITKA

- Sitka is a hiker's paradise, with trails of all levels of difficulty threading through the landscape. Try saltwater fishing, sea kayaking or simply stroll along the coast investigating the many tide pools.

- There is no shortage of history in Sitka, with cultural and heritage hot spots including theSitka National Historic Park, the Alaska Native Brotherhood Building, a National Historic Landmark, the Isabel Miller Museum, the Sitka National Historical Park and the Southeast Alaska Indian Cultural Center.

Ketchikan, Alaska : Day 6

ABOUT KETCHIKAN

Ketchikan was originally founded as a Native American fishery before growing during the 1898 Gold Rush to the Klondike. Much of the town's colorful past is still evident, both in the city center and especially in the nearby Native American villages, where visitors will be enchanted by colorfully carved totem poles and the fascinating legends that surround them.

ACTIVITIES IN KETCHIKAN

- Experience the sheer granite cliffs, plunging 1,000-foot waterfalls, crystalline lakes and low hanging mists of Misty Fjords from the air on a seaplane.
- Visit the Totem Heritage Center and explore the history of these cultural icons which can also be found throughout the city.
- Stroll through the town and shop for local crafts and jewelry before having lunch at one of Ketchikan's classic cafes.

Victoria, British Columbia : Day 7

ABOUT VICTORIA

Located on the southern tip on the island of Vancouver in British Columbia, the city of Victoria is probably best known for its mild climate and active outdoor lifestyle. In fact, the city has been named the "fittest city" in Canada more than once. Among the many attractions are world-famous gardens, its 150 years of British history, gourmet dining and fantastic shopping.

ACTIVITIES IN VICTORIA

Visit the world-famous Butchart Gardens or the lush and exotic Butterfly Gardens and see how Victoria earned the nickname "The City of Gardens." Explore Victoria's history on a Grand City Drive. Visit the awe-inspiring Craigdarroch Castle with its 39 rooms and five stories of stained glass and end the day with high tea at the world-famous Fairmont Empress Hotel. Tour a few of the local pubs and microbreweries along the Victoria Ale Trail or go wine tasting at one of the area's award-winning vineyards. Enjoy an afternoon of sightseeing on a tour of exclusive residential districts, historic Chinatown, and Antique Row, one of the many shopping districts.
